

Great House Colouring Sheet

Pedro St. James Great House, known locally as "Pedro Castle," was built in 1780 and is the oldest surviving stone building in the Cayman Islands. The site is celebrated as the Birthplace of Democracy in the Cayman Islands, having hosted the meeting on 5 December 1831 that led to the establishment of the Islands' first elected parliament.

